Armory Records Go with the Old Year

ANDERSON WINS MILE RACE FROM SCRATCH

Wright Victor in 600-Yard Novice Run, While Lake Triumphs in Bicycle Contest.

small regard for old age

furphy, John J. Eller and George J

Mers.

Shea got the jump on Mulderig in the first relay of 440 yards and gave Koecher a three-foot lead on Murphy.

Marks Set at 71st Regiment Games.

for their relays and a thrilling duel for the mastery began.

Eller had many friends in the hours and they rocted wildly for their favorite to cut down the lead. McCue, a long-limbed athlete, never gave Eller a chance, however, and ran him off his feet, finishing the third relay some ten yards to the good.

the one-mile run, the cele race and the 12-pound the were all bettered, arily midnight before the the programme was findered the remains of 1914 core, so badly mutilated his 1913, would hardly recognize faced John J. Mctarter, in the 600-yard and after a nip and tuck the way Robert Wright, B. broke the wersted cet in front of E. J. Mecompany E. with Edward Company M, third, two word into the lead a langer of the same mark with him, showed pienty of speed in the last lip when Gough started to sprint for and the last turn the men elbow, but Wright showed or garned slightly in the draw and alightly in the draw the former of by three-fifths of a second by the same of any other can be coaxed into grade man who can be coaxed into the ring with his man, Gilbert Gallant, the latter defended the ring with his man, Gilbert Gallant, the caro-Kann defence and lost dwilling to send the Boston by against any man the promoters because of the day's play follows:

WHITE.

Boards

Brade Tornell, and Bart, of pennsylvania. The latter defended whith the caro-Kann defence and lost dwilling to send the Boston by against any man the promoters because of the day's play follows:

WHITE.

Boards

Brade Tornell, and Bart, of pennsylvania. The latter defended with the caro-Kann defence and lost distribution for the starting from the 13-yard mark, won the ring with his man, Gilbert Gallant, the caro-Kann defence and lost distribution for the starting from the 13-yard mark, won the ring with his man, Gilbert Gallant, the latter defended with the caro-Kann defence and lost distribution for the starting from the 13-yard mark, won the ring with his man, Gilbert Gallant, the caro-Kann defence and lost distribution for the latter defended with the caro-Kann defence and lost distribution for the latter defended with the caro-Kann defence and lost distribution for the latter defended with the ring with his man, Gi

Forty men started in the 1,000-yard sew figures of 2:26 4.5 the old record being sed his rear wheel to ses. W. Waeldner and anning by twenty feet who led Van den who led Van den who led Van den set to be se

AUTOMOBILES.

Admission 50c. Wed. $1.

Giants Prove a Gold Mine

Some idea of the annual profits of the New York Giants was furnished dent and owner of the club. value of the estate is $415,623. Mr Brush owned 1,306 shares of the Na tional Exhibition Company, the cor poration name of the Giants. This was appraised at 8348,702. The cost of the new grand stand is put at $285,157.

The statement of the annual profit of the Glants shows that in 1910 the club made a net profit of $69,068 on the regular season and $15,961 on the post eason series with the Yankees. The next year proved much more profitable for the club made $76,518 on the season and $75,507 on the world's series. The year of 1912, which was the last covered by the appraisal, returned a profit of $84,803 on the playing season Red Sox. These figures show that the club made in three years-1910, 1911 and 1912-the huge sum of $416,791.

yacht races, in which the Imp and the Silver Heels, owned by Robert T. Heitemeyer, of New York City: Daniel Assy's Guli, James B. Weaver's Kitty and Grant and Morford's Tyro will be the probable starters.

Wants Bout for Kelley.

Jimmic De Forest, one of the oldest and best trainers of boxers in the East, at any rate is managing Eddic Kelley, the Hariem lightweight. De Forest is eager to send Kelley, who incidentally is known throughout the country as a clever, hard-hitting youngster, against any man in the lightweight class.

MacLean Issues Challenge.

Company M, third, two company M, third, the class two company M, the class two company M, the class two company M, third, the class two company M, the class two company M, th

Dartmouth Seven Beats M.A.C Boston, Dec. 31.—Dartmouth's hockey team defeated the seven from Massachusetts Agricultural College to-night Chusetts Agricultural Chusetts chusetts Agricultural College to-night Locas vs. Davis vs.

CORNELL IN LEAD AT CHESS TOURNEY

Ithaca Players Win Four Straight Games in Second Round.

2-POINT ADVANTAGE OVER PENN TEAM

Grafman, Former Boys' High Student, Beats Winkelman, Ex-Harvard Captain.

Cornell assumed the lead yesterday in the Triangular College Chess League Burney. The Ithaca team won four straight games in the second round of the match play, held at the roems of the Manhattan Chess Club. Cornell now has a two-point advantage over Pennsylvania, holder of the tri-collegiate championship.

and otherwise maltreated armory, at 34th st. and of the regiment and sevice of the regiment and sevice men and women who is in the big drill hall daphauded the work of al laddies. But don't get at laddies. But don't get at laddies. But don't get at leich correct to severe the 71st battered about an four times did armory by the 62 to work on them. The the board when the lead in the last half lap, although the board when the lead in the last half lap, although the one-mile run, the lengthness of the season here for third class ice that the season here for third class ice the records part of the season here for third class ice the part of the season here for third class ice the cone-mile run, the lengthness of the season here for third class ice their chief rivals. At the close of the season here for third class ice their chief rivals. At the close of the season here for third class ice their chief rivals. At the close of the season here for third class ice their chief rivals. At the close of the season here for third class ice their chief rivals. At the close of the season here for third class ice their chief rivals. At the close of the season here for third class ice their chief rivals. At the close of the season here for third class ice their chief rivals. At the close of the season here for third class ice their chief rivals. At the close of the season here for third class ice their chief rivals. At the close of the season here for third class ice their chief rivals. At the close of the season here for third class ice their chief rivals. At the close of the season here for third class ice their chief rivals. At the close of the season here for third class ice their chief rivals. At the close of the season here for third class ice the company that the season here for third class ice the company that the season here for third class ice the company that the season here for third class ice the company that the season here for third class ice the company that the season here for third class ice the first three laps

MacLean Issues Challenge.

Alexander MacLean is out with a hallenge to Charley White, Joe Shuhallenge to Cha It was give and take in the game etween Jukel, of Cornell, and Bart, of ennsylvania. The latter defend

Rattling Good Card of Holiday Boxing Bouts

Contests at Seven Local come together for six rounds at Philadelphia. Clubs - McCarty to Temmy McCarty, the promising heavyweight of Montana, who climbed

Contests at Seven Local

Clubs — McCarty to Cross Gloves with Fred Fritts.

The year of 1915 will be ushered in many bouts throughout the country to start to be seven the seven that the seven the seven that the seven at Columbus, Ohio.

The Irving Athletic Club will not promote a boxing show this afternoon. Nor will it promote any boxing shows until it obeys the ruling of the State Athletic Commission, handed down yesterday afternoon, at a meeting held at headquarters it Park Row. Some time ago, E. Leichtman, a sailor on board the United States ship Utah, boxed at the Irving club, and deposed that the club refused to give $37 which was due him. He complained to the State Athletic Commission, and the club was ordered to pay. No effort was made to obey the ruling, Leichtman said, so yesterday he appeared again. The commission notified the Irving Athletic Club that no further boxing bouts could be held until Leichtman was paid. The case of the Allied Promoting Company, of Brooklyn, came up again yesterday. Gil Boag, who secured a license for the Manhattan Sporting Club, with headquarters in Manhattan Casino, is supposed to have sold his lease to the Allied Promoting Club, with headquarters in Manhattan Casino, is supposed to have sold his lease to the Allied Promoting Club. By some mysterious means, however, the McMahon brothers secured possession of the lease and promoted bouts. The Brooklyn company secured an injunction from the United States Supreme Court restraining all others but the Allied Promoting Club from conducting bouts at the aforementioned Manhattan Casino.

Yesterday Ed Waldron, owner of the Yesterday Ed Waldron, owner of the building, and Joseph Hughes, representing the Allied Promoting Company, with their attorneys, went over the entire matter with the State Athletic Commission. Decision was withheld. Charley Harvey, secretary of the commission, wishes all his friends and followers of boxing the compliments of the season.

The Tribune it's Guaranteed. Editorial Page, First Column.

Scotland to Meet Ireland for International Honors.

Scotland and Ireland will meet to-day n a trial for international supremac

HOLIDAY SOCCER GAMES Man Who Lays Out Golf Course for Pay Not Pro

It would be a mistake to have the designess at the coming snutul meeting work upon the definition. There would not be sufficient time that evening to go into the thing properly.

My advice would be to refer everything to the executive committee, but accepting money or its equivalent for the amateur question was carefully shle laying out or constructing, supervising considered.

at soccer in the second of the series at Lenox Oval, under the direction of the New York Footballers' Protective Association. The kick-off has been set for 2 p.m.

In the first match England defeated the United States by a score of 3 goals to 0. The Scotchmen for to-day's game have been picked from the ranks of the Can McDonalds, the Camerons, the Continentals, the Jersey Athletic Club and Our Boys Field Club, while the Irishmen are recruited from the Brookly Letties, the New York Celties, the Greenpoint, the Camerons, Our Boys and Hudson United.

Another big soccer game scheduled for this afternoon will be played in the National League series between the Clan McDonalds of Brooklyn and the Jersey Athletic Club at Marquette Oval, Brooklyn.

The first match England defeated the United States of the Camerons, the common of Leighton Calkins, and the proposed Amateur Rule.

In the opinion of Leighton Calkins, the Jersey Athletic Club and Our Boys Field Club, while the Trishmen are recruited from the Brooklyn and the Marquette Oval, Brooklyn, and the Marquette Oval, Brooklyn.

Another big soccer game scheduled for this afternoon will be played in the National League series between the Clan McDonalds of Brooklyn and the Jersey Athletic Club at Marquette Oval, Brooklyn.

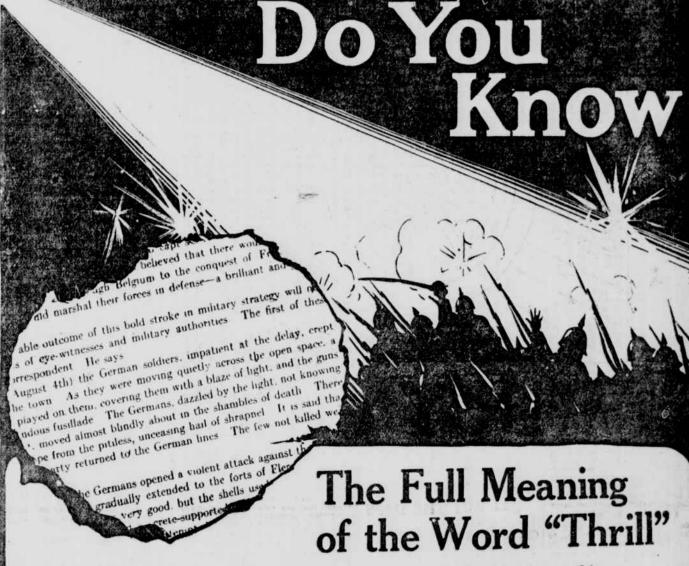

tourney. The Ithaca team won four straight games in the second round of the Manhattan Cheso Ciub. Cornell now has a two-point advantage over Pennsylvania, holder of the tri-collegate championship.

The fact that both of the games played between Cornell and Pennsylvania were won by the Ithacans adds materially to the strength of Cornell to the both of the strength of cornel now trying to arrange a retrailly to the strength of Cornell to the both of the distribution in the race. Pennsylvania, on the other hand, added two points at the expense of Brown, the men from Providence being left with a zero score.

There will be two more rounds, with eight additional games for each team.

The followers of Pannsylvania, on the other hand, added two points at the expense of Brown, the men from Providence being left with a zero score.

There will be two more rounds, with eight additional games for each team.

You probably won't, until you have become engrossed in the graphic utterances and impressive photographs found in each Part of the

New York Tribune Photographic History of the Great War

Each Part Complete in Itself.

ABOUNDING IN HUMAN INTEREST Never before has history-facts-been shown to be so much more gripping than the most exciting fiction. You forget the pen pictures of even great novelists, but the inspiring, attention-holding text of this great achievement-prepared by Dr. Francis Trevelyan Miller and a big force of other trained historians-indelibly stamps itself upon your

YOU CAN'T FORGET THE PICTURES Pictures, taken by over 200 special photographers under the most trying conditions, are bountifully

A FEW PARTS TO A VOLUME

add one Part a week to the collection. The most thrilling fiction ever written is flat and lifeless compared with the work done by Dr.

Miller and his assistants in this remarkable

PART EIGHT STANDS TO-

The TRIBUNE OFFICE

paper to be found.

History.

IT IS NOT TOO LATE TO BEGIN SAVING

reproduced in each Part. They tell their story of the Great War as no pen could portray it. You think of them, study them, marvel at their fidelity, glory in their appeal.

HAVING THE PARTS BOUND

Because of their rare value, the man who appreciates the unusual in his library immediately visualizes these Parts bound in beautiful volumes. He sees the completion of his War Library. He becomes an enthusiast who is satisfied only with the best of everything.

As each Part is generous, it takes but few Parts to make up a bound volume. From the first to the last Part they will be uniform in size and printing-Ex11 inches, done in Photographic Distory artistic Sepia Photogravure on the toughest, most durable The Parts so far published may be procured at the office of THE TRIBUNE. They will be sent postpaid, at 10c a Part, anywhere. The cost is insignificant-the Parts will be priceless after the war. Get them NOW-read them TO-NIGHT-then

Auto Show Jan. 2 to 9

Opens Tomorrow at 2 P.M.

Grand Central

It It's Advertised in 10 A.M. to 10.30 P.M.